

NATIONAL SEMINAR

“National Education Policy 2020: The challenges ahead”

Date: 17th December, 2022

Venue: Google Meet

The present scenario of COVID- 19 has resulted in a paradigm shift in teaching learning process with has paced online advancement and propensity of millennial learners towards becoming digital, the role of teacher and learner has become more challenging and online teaching learning process is becoming greatest cardinal principal during pandemic.

The learner and teacher are facing various challenges during online teaching . This National Seminar aims to study NEP challenges. The National Seminar was conducted on December 17, 2022 at Google Meet application.

Prof. Sonia Jindal, Principal, Gitarattan Institute of Advanced Studies and Training, was the guiding force in the dynamic execution of National Seminar and other faculty members and guests enriched the event with their remarkable presence.

Ms Neha Bajaj, Assistant Professor, Gitarattan Institute of Advanced Studies and Training gave the salutation for the programme.

To carry over the proceedings of the National Seminar, Dr.AanchalRana Assistant Professor, Gitarattan Institute of Advanced Studies and Training gave Prelude where she gave the introduction about the topic in a detailed manner. She emphasized on NEP: The challenges associated and other different related aspects .

After it, Dr. S. K. Bhatia, our associate from CIE. Sir has a great companionship with the Institution. He addressed the faculties and personalities from educational fraternity and shared his words of wisdom. He focused on different aspects associated like focusing on vocational education and also on holistic approach to be used for teaching new age learners. He also focused on different ways through which we can nurture our learners in a stress free environment .

To carry over the discussion, Prof. Dr. Jyoti Sharma, University School of Education, GGSIPU shared her views on the topic. Ma'am has addressed positive factors associated with NEP . She also discussed about the much needed modifications that play an important role in our country. She gave the example of the teacher upgrading their methodology for teaching. She suggested the implementations regarding content matter to be practiced in an effective manner so that no one feel stressed and enjoy their learning teaching process.

The National Seminar has happened under two technical sessions. The First Technical Session was hosted by Ms. Shikha Sharma, Assistant Professor, Gitarattan Institute of Advanced Studies and Training and chaired by Prof. Dr. Jyoti Sharma in which six papers were presented by guests.

Dr. Anubhuti Hajela & Ms. Jaya Gupta from Marketing Management department of New delhi Institute of Management were the first presenter team. Secondly, Ms. Kalpana Rawat & Mr. Dinesh Rawat from Management Department of LSM Government P G College, Uttrakhand presented their views on the theme chosen.

Nextly Ms. Sandhya Yadav, from J.S. University, Shikohabad joined up for presentation. It was followed by Ms. Priyanka Sharma Chopra of Delhi Teacher Training College, Najafgarh later.

Ms. Anita Sharma, from USE, Research Scholar, GGSIPU came afterwards she also highlighted some of the areas associated with NEP 2020.

Lastly, Ms. Sakshi Chadda, from USE, Research Scholar, GGSIPU opined too on the challenge area of NEP and also suggested few way outs to get the transaction done in appropriate way.

After the presentations, the first technical session was concluded by the Prof. Jyoti Sharma. She applauded the range of knowledge and spectrum of educational field which was included in the papers presented. She ended with question session and resolved the queries of those who were present.

At the end of First Technical Session, Ms. Shikha Sharma, Assistant Professor, Gitarattan Institute of Advanced Studies and Training handed over the charge to execute the technical session 2 by Dr. Shikha Ranjan, Associate Professor, Gitarattan Institute of Advanced Studies & Training.

life circumstances through their senses and the arts provide a means of expression. Children can participate in music, drama, visual arts, and dance to expressively communicate. Furthermore, the arts enable children to develop a strong foundation for acquiring, processing, and applying information for the conceptual learning. After Dr. Shalini Yadava engrossed the participants with her immense knowledge, the paper presenters from various institutions presented their ideas on the sub-themes in an interactive manner.

The Second Technical Session was hosted by Dr. Shikha Ranjan, Assistant Professor, Gitarattan Institute of Advanced Studies and Training and chaired by Dr. Shalini Yadava in which seven papers were presented by the presenters from various institutions.

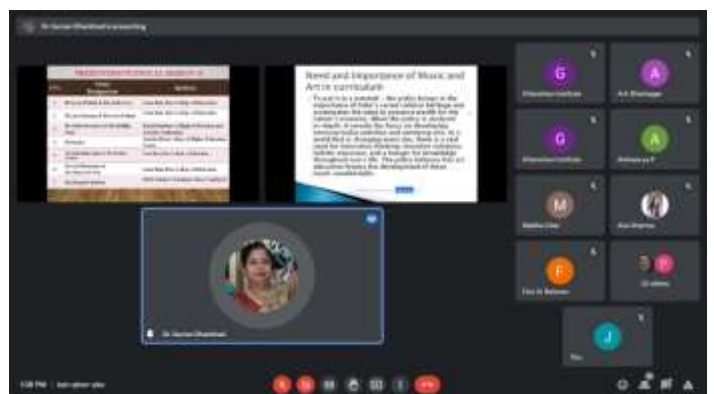

Firstly, Dr. Geeta Pathak and Ms. Aishwarya from Guru Ram Das College of Education presented their views on the selected sub-theme. Their topic was ‘Challenges in Elementary Numeracy Achievements: A case study of Delhi Private Schools’.

Ms. Annu Sharma and Geeta Pathak from Guru Ram Das College of Education shared the highlights of their research paper on the topic ‘A study of Mathematics Teachers’ Awareness regarding NEP recommendations in the field of Numeracy achievements’. They shared the key highlights of their study in an interactive manner.

Afterwards, Dr. Priti Srivastava and Ms. Mallika Ghai from Kamal Institute of Higher Education and Advanced Technology presented on the topic ‘Challenge of Integrating Art and Music with the teaching of other subjects’. They highlighted the key challenges of integrating art and music with other teaching subjects and also presented some suggestive measures to enhance the integration of art and music with other teaching subjects.

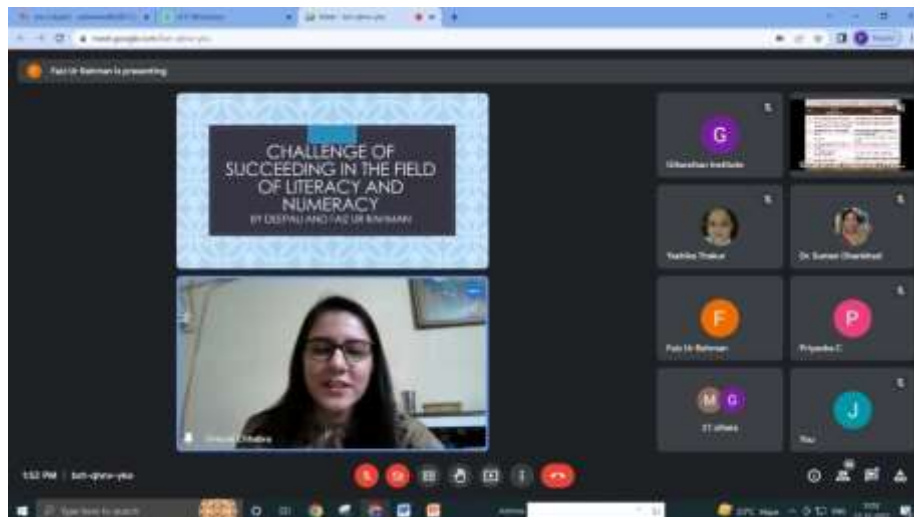

Nextly, Dr. Suman from Kasturi Ram College of Higher Education, Narela stressed on the need and importance of art and music in curriculum, ma'am also shared some real life examples related to her chosen topic.

Afterwards, Ms. Manvinder Kaur and Ms. Yashika Thakur from Guru Ram Das College of Education presented their paper entitled "The Look Ahead-Challenges and Opportunities of Integrating Art with Education". They elaborated on the challenges and opportunities of integrating art with education.

Dr. Arti Bhatnagar and Ms. Himanshi Sain from Guru Ram Das College of Education joined up for presentation and shared their valuable views on the selected theme.

Lastly, Ms. Deepali Chhabra and Mr. Faiz Rahman from Delhi Teachers Training College, Najafgarh presented on the topic 'Challenge of succeeding in the field of Literacy and Numeracy'.

The technical session-2 was followed by an Open Discussion, where participants were invited to put forward their queries and ideas. The session came to its conclusion with expression of gratitude by Ms. Jasleen Kaur Kohli, Assistant Professor, Gitarattan Institute of Advanced Studies and Training, as she on the behalf of entire Gitarattan family, thanked the honorable resource persons for both the sessions for their valuable insights on the theme and the participants for their active engagement throughout the session.

The presence of dignitaries, an impressive line-up of scholars from various institutions, an array of carefully selected, well-researched and well-presented papers on the subject, all came together to help Gitarattan team admirably conduct this National Seminar. This seminar has, without a shade of doubt, made the academic fraternity richer, with the additional literature in form of scholarly works on the subject.